21/12/2022

Subject

For system-related reasons, no "Special Information" (SI) will be produced and made available from January 2023.

General information

The Special Information (SI) will become Technical Information (TI).

WHY:

The creation of SIs will be suspended for system-related reasons.

DIFFERENCES BETWEEN SI AND TI?

Both documents convey technical information without instructions.

- The TI applies worldwide.
- The SI only applies to certain indicated countries
e.g.: for Germany, Austria and Switzerland

REMEDY:

The TI will receive a new note below the header:

Regional validity:

- 1) If "Regional validity" appears, then this TI applies to the countries marked
- 2) If "Regional validity" does not appear, the TI is valid worldwide
